

"Billy Budd" by Morrissey

Say, Billy Budd
so you think you should?
everyone's laughing
say, Billy Budd
so you think that you should?
everyone's laughing!
since I took up with you Things have been bad yeah, but now it's 12 years on now it's 12 years on yes, and I took up with you I took my job application into town did you hear? they turned me down yes and it's all because of us and what was in our eyes
and what was in our eyes
I would happily lose both of my legs
if it meant you could be free
if it meant you could be free
