

Name _____ Period _____ Date _____
 Subject of Recipe: _____

Symbolic Recipe Rubric

Although this is a symbolic recipe, it should follow recipe conventions – lists of relevant ingredients, exact measurements, significant proportions, procedures for “cooking.” Include a paragraph of instructions (or numbered step-by-step instructions). Even containers and who is “served” matter. Yes, this is like a REAL recipe.

Exceeds Minimal Criteria +	Meets Minimal Criteria =	Does NOT Meet Criteria --
Ingredients listed are accurate, insightful, and creative. Combinations of ingredients “work” together. No critical ingredients are missing.	Ingredients listed are appropriate to the person and include core content and/or concepts. Ingredients are accurate (e.g. historically).	Basic ingredients do not reflect understanding of the person, are missing important ingredients. May include factual errors.
The relationships among proportions of ingredients illustrate understanding of the person.	Ingredient proportions demonstrate relative significance of each ingredient in creating the person.	Proportions don’t make sense in relation to one another, proportions indicate lack of basic understanding of the topic
Procedures insightfully reflect contributions of ingredients to the symbolic development of the person.	Procedures accurately reflect contributions of ingredients to the symbolic development of the person.	Errors in chronology or lack of coherence in identified sequence of procedure.
Choice of vocabulary and procedures demonstrates a sense of deeper understanding of how ingredients can be combined to symbolically create the person.	Procedure vocabulary reflects different ways that ingredients can be combined and processed to symbolically create the person.	Lack of variety in vocabulary in procedure indicates lack of understanding of how ingredients combine to symbolically create the person.
Font, color and illustrations enhance the recipe and make the end “product” appetizing.	Font, color, and illustration are appropriate for the recipe and end “product.”	Font, color, and illustrations are not appealing or appetizing. May even detract from the end “product.”
Recipe title combines accurate, symbolic portrayal of person with cleverness or other form of insight.	Recipe has a title that summarizes the culture symbolically.	Missing recipe title or title lacks relationship to overall symbolic nature of person.
Free of major mechanical and grammatical answers. Proofreading is evident.	Mechanically and grammatically accurate with few errors. Some evidence of proofreading.	Mechanical and grammatical errors detract from project. Little evidence of proofreading.

Comments/Grade:
