

Invisible Man

Sketch - Notes

For our study of Invisible Man you are going to make ONE sketch-note on a regular size poster based on the topic that you were assigned in class. Your sketch-note will deliver a visual thesis developed by you. The details of your sketch-note should include the necessary elements to prove the thesis statement of a typical analytical literary essay.

This means the sketch-note must include:

- A thesis related to a theme
- Linked arguments
- Proof (quotes with MLA citation)

Your sketch notes must also include:

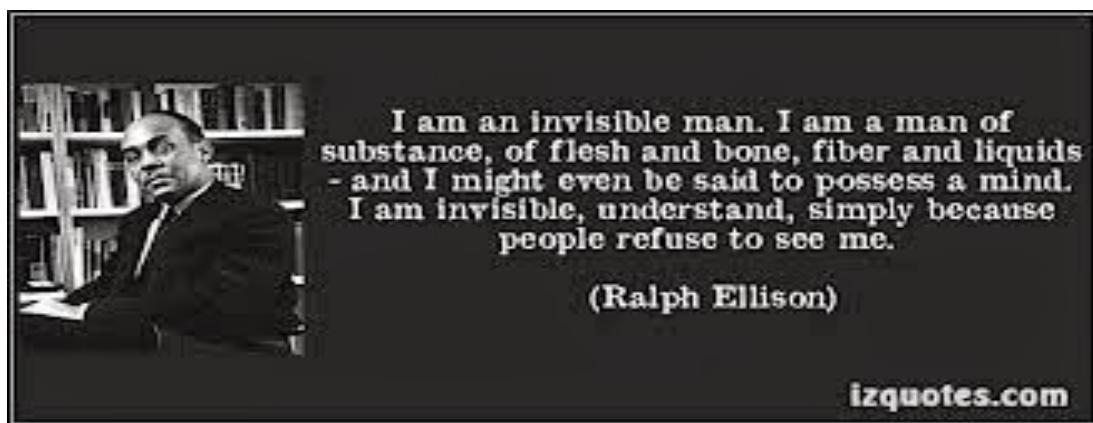

- A minimum of 10 images
- A minimum of 10 Symbols
- A minimum of 10 single words
- A minimum of 5 statements in point form.
- A minimum of 3 characters included

Remember that the point of sketch-noting is not to prove that you are the best artist in the class. For some of you, the visual representation will look like arrows and stick people. For others, you may be turning in elaborate drawings. What is important is that you don't miss the point that this is to be both notes AND visuals; you cannot just rely on one over the other.

You may create the sketch-note by hand using one or several artistic tools.

You may use canvas if you prefer to use paint.

You may use digital media programs.
