One Pager Assignment & Rubric

A "One-Pager*" is a written and graphic interpretation of what you have read presented on a single sheet of paper. The idea/concept behind the One Pager is similar to "sketch noting" as it is meant to help you visualize what you've read. *(If you google image search "one pagers" you'll see several examples)

Guidelines:

- Use standard (8 ½ by 11) unlined paper (computer/printer paper)- You may go up to "legal size," but no larger. You may also use the Google Templates.
- Fill the entire page!
- Written work must be neat & legible
- Use color and demonstrate creativity for images/illustrations – no pencil please!
- Include all of the following elements (the arrangement is your choice):

    o A border which somehow represents the key themes or motif from what you have read.
    o Images with quotations woven into or around them (at least three). The images should somehow represent what you consider to be the most important symbols in the text.
    o Images and/or doodled words that represent the key characters from the text and how they developed over the course of the text.
    o Images and quotations that show the author's style of writing, and the power of the figurative devices that are used.
    o Images and/or words that show connections between the themes and ideas in the writing and what is going on in the world today (and or how we've evolved (or haven't) based on the setting of the play/novel) (Sophistication point work here.)
    o Three important quotations from across the text with proper citations
    o Words and/or images that show the significance of the setting in some way

	Criteria	Comments/Feedback
Analysis 15 points	● It is clear from the arrangement of your evidence & images that your analysis is through & succinct; demonstrates advanced thinking
Quotations 15 points	● Textual evidence represents the work as a whole (they span several portions of the play/novel); Textual evidence is particularly powerful or connected in an insightful manner; Quotations are cited properly (MLA).
Graphics & Required Elements 2*0 points*	● All components of the assignment are visible on one-page; Graphic elements are well-chosen and well executed; required elements are incorporated seamlessly into the artwork
