Awake! awake!
 Ring the alarm bell! Murder and treason!
 Banquo and Donalbain! Malcolm! awake!

Thou hast it now, King, Cawdor, Glamis, all,
 As the weird women promised, and I fear
 Thou play'dst most foully for't

There's but one down; the son is fled.

I'll to England.
 To Ireland, I: our separated fortune
 Shall keep us both the safer

Both of you
 Know Banquo was your enemy.
 Fleance his son ....
 ....must embrace the fate
 Of that dark hour.

The sovereignty will fall upon Macbeth.
 He is already named, and gone to Scone
 To be invested.

To-night we hold a solemn supper, sir,
 And I'll request your presence.

Be innocent of the knowledge, dearest chuck,
 Till thou applaud the deed.

Come on;
