

Synthesis Essay Topic: _____
 Source (Parenthetical Reference): _____
 Author: _____ Publication & Date: _____

Identify the Speaker (by name if possible) and at least three of his/her character traits based on comprehending the source material.
Identify the primary audience (by name if possible) and at least three character traits of the group or individual based on comprehending the source material. (Hint: One way to help with this is to ask yourself these questions: What publication would/does house this source material? What type of people typically read/view said publication?)
Identify any biases that the speaker and/or audience may have/share in relation to the topic of the synthesis essay	Speaker:	Audience:
Explain the argument of this source in relation to the topic of the synthesis essay

Creativity Time!

Draw a comic strip, using only stick figures (for the sake of time), that includes this source in a conversation with another source. When you create your speech bubbles, you may only include directly quoted text from the source materials.

This comic strip may be single or multi-framed. It may include more than two sources. Focus on creating a scene where the sources seemingly agree, argue, or expound upon one another.

Don't limit yourself to these directions. If you can make a purposeful comic strip that links sources in a meaningful way that rocks, do it!

