A hand-drawn sketch of a storefront. The drawing is done with thick black lines on a white background. The storefront has a large rectangular sign in the center. The sign contains the text "Perfume Shop" in green, stylized letters. To the right of the main text on the sign, there is a smaller line of text: "we make you smell good." The storefront is flanked by two buildings, each with several windows. The drawing is simple and illustrative.

Enterprising: "What a sign
for a perfume shop!"

Descriptive:

"It's a rock, a peak, a cape! No, more than a cape: a peninsula!"

Dramatic: "When it bleeds, it must be like the Red Sea!"

Rustic
That don't look like no nose to
me. Its either a cucumber or a
small water
melon.
